

Ministry is hard ... but you know that. COVID is hard, but you know that too.

PLI is blessed with many supporters that love our ministry, pray for the work we do and love the church – as well as funding what we do. They know when leaders are appropriately poured into and cared for, they can multiply disciples - and God’s Kingdom wins.

We are blessed with supporters that own a remote retreat home that they would like to make available to you and/or your ministry leaders. They know life has been hard – and would like to encourage you in the work that you do. If you need (or would like) a few days to get away, they would like to help out.

A little about “Double R – Ranch and Retreat”

Located just outside Johnson City, TX -- about 75 minutes west of Austin and north of San Antonio, it can accommodate a couple, a family or even a couple of families for weekend or several days. It is a remote “ranch” type location and perfect for getting away from the busyness of the world.

The retreat is six miles from a small town (which means groceries, restaurants and a Dairy Queen), it is more than 20 miles from the nearest Starbucks or McDonalds. Pedernales Falls and Enchanted Rock State Parks are relatively close hiking destinations, and the country roads are good for biking (you would need to bring your own bikes). Fredericksburg is 45 minutes away for those that like to shop and the Lyndon B. Johnson Ranch (Texas Whitehouse) along with his boyhood home are nearby for the history buffs. For those who like to taste or drink wine, the road between Johnson City and Fredericksburg is lined with vineyards and wineries. There is an inground swimming pool and grills on the property, an indoor shuffleboard, air hockey and foosball table, and all sorts of yard games. The covered porch surrounding the main house is a great place to read, nap, study the hummingbirds, and watch the sun rise and set. It has a main home and a bunk house for extra guests. Towels, linens, dishes and utensils are provided but guests are asked to provide their own food and beverages.

If this is something you or someone on your team might enjoy, please reach out and I will connect you with the owners.

Blessings on all you do!
