

Launch and multiply new communities of believers.

Many church leaders concede they are plagued with a feeling that something simply is not working. Making disciples—and making disciples who make disciples—seems difficult if not completely impossible.

Look around, and you'll find:

- Questions around who exactly is in your mission field.
- A state of flux for existing and newer ministries.
- Uncertainty around the path forward in sharing Christ's love in today's culture.
- A growing momentum to gather in community and together turn toward discipling.
- An openness to reimagine the Church in new and relevant ways!

PLI's Discipleship to Missional Community features:

- A 2 year Learning Community with five training immersions.
- Church leaders join their pastor and spouse, creating a unique team with which to learn, participate and journey together.
- Weekly coaching for the first year provides ongoing encouragement and accountability to the pastor, spouse and leaders (dependent on team size). All coaching is done via video conference.

The cost is $2,000 per immersion for a team of 4, $3,000 for a team of 6, and $4,000 for a team of 8. Reserve your spot with a $500 registration fee.

Nothing has changed since Jesus challenged his disciples to “Go and Make Disciples” and yet everything has. The commitment to discipling ordinary people who disciple others gives birth to fresh expressions of the extraordinary mission of God.
